Published December 17, 2007 03:28 pm - Managing editor of the Greensburg Daily News Jim Cummings resigned today effective immediately. A search for his successor is underway.

Daily News Editor resigns

Staff Reports

The managing editor of the Greensburg Daily News, Jim Cummings, resigned today effective immediately. A search for his successor is underway.

"The Daily News has a solid tradition of journalism dating back into the nineteenth century. We have had some top-quality journalists lead our newsroom over the years, and we will begin the search for someone who can continue that tradition," stated Laura Welborn.

Cummings was named managing editor in early 2006. Prior to that, he had been a reporter with the Daily News.
