Dear Parishioners,

Your contribution to our capital campaign stays in our parish account with the Archdiocese. Ignore the letters you receive from the Archdiocese. One very generous parishioner paid off our responsibility to the Archdiocese in this campaign. Every penny you contribute to the parish for our campaign stays in the parish for the construction of the new parish plant. Thanks for your understanding. Msgr. Knueven

Feast of the Epiphany

Today is the traditional day of Epiphany—the “Twelfth Day of Christmas.” On this day we mark the apex, as it were, of the Christmas season. Today we acknowledge and celebrate that the child born in a lowly manger in the darkness of night is revealed as the manifestation of God (the literal meaning of Epiphany). All manifestations of God are “lights” that shine through Christ, illuminating and revealing a deeper understanding of his identity.

Traditionally, three events in the life of Christ are remembered as manifestations of God’s presence and action through Christ.

1. the visit of the Magi: Matthew 2:1-12
2. the Wedding Feast of Cana: John 2:1-11
3. the Baptism of Jesus in the Jordan River: Mt. 3:13-17, Mk 1:9-11, Lk 3:21-22

Today is also the traditional day for blessing homes and other buildings by marking the lintels of doorways. The markings commemorate the three Magi traditionally known by the names Casper, Melchior, and Balthaser. The markings for 2008 are 20 + C + M + B + 08. These letters represent the three initials of the Magi’s names written between the numbers of the year, separated by four crosses.

Parish Mission- February 24 – 28, 2008 - Friar Justin Belitz, OFM will lead our parish mission focusing on relationships. Relationships bring us great joy BUT can also bring pain and sorrow. This statement is true for us today as it has been for centuries. However, we all have free will. That means we can choose to enjoy all of our relationships, whether they are with ourselves, with others, with things, with life-experiences, or with God. The key is knowing how you relate and Understanding 7 principles that govern all relationships. Join us for our parish mission to learn more about strengthening your relationships. “Relationships are essential to life. Use them to create a Full Life!”

Prayer Basket

Don’t forget to put your prayer requests in the basket in the back of church. Prayer group will pray for each one at each meeting.

Parish Directories are scheduled for delivery mid-January. Please watch the bulletin for more information.

New St. Joseph Missals available at the parish office for $5.00.

Welcome to 2008

A new year of grace from the Lord! A new year by which God is able to transform us more into the image of his Son, Jesus Christ.

As we begin this new year, we humbly submit, for your consideration, these Simple Liturgical Resolutions for the New Year, 2008.

1. I resolve in the next year to treat each Sunday Eucharist as the most important event of that week.
2. I resolve in the next year to do all I can to participate more fully in the celebration of the Sunday Mass.

For example:

- I resolve to sing all the songs and acclamations.
 - I resolve to respond in the liturgy with conviction and whole-heartedness.
 - I resolve to make use of the liturgical silence by praying as I've been invited to do.
3. I resolve in the next year to read prayerfully and carefully the Sunday scriptures at least once during the week before Mass.
 4. I resolve in the next year to arrive before Mass begins and to leave the church only after the liturgy has ended.
 5. I resolve in the next year to take part in at least two other liturgical celebrations of the Church, as they are celebrated in my parish, in addition to Sunday mass (e.g., one of the sacraments, seasonal Reconciliation services, prayer services, Morning or Evening Prayer, blessings, Eucharistic devotions, etc.)
 6. I resolve in the next year to take the dismissal of the Mass—the Mass is ended, go in the peace of Christ to love and serve the Lord—seriously, and to somehow make it real in my life during the week.
 7. I resolve in the next year to pay careful attention to the homily during Mass, in an attempt to hear the voice of the Lord speaking to me in relation to that day's scriptures.

Dear Community,

Happy New Year to all of you. The years seem to go by so fast. I remember thinking about retirement when I was seventy-one years old. Priests are expected to retire when they are seventy. After that time, they cannot be pastors anymore, just administrators. Pastors have to voluntarily resign, administrators can be changed at the will of the Archbishop. In my mind a pastor and an administrator are practically the same thing; just a technicality. The bottom line is that I volunteered for another year as your administrator. I'll do one year at a time. As the saying goes: "Old soldiers never die, they just fade away."

I will be leaving for Florida January 9th. I will return January 14. I will be attending a continuing education for priests. This program is offered every January in Florida.

I'm writing this letter on December 22nd. It's hard to figure out what is happening on the week of January 6.

In one of the "Peanuts" cartoons drawn by the late Charles Schulz, Charlie Brown and Lucy are gazing up into the starry night sky. Charlie muses that out of all those stars, one must be his. He tells Lucy that just as he is alone among millions of people on earth, his tiny star, out there among millions of stars, is also alone. They continue to survey the twinkling heavens above them. Charlie asks, "Does that make sense, Lucy? Do you think it means anything?" Lucy replies, "Certainly! It means you're cracking up, Charlie Brown."

Perhaps the Three Wise Men from the East, following their star, had some second thoughts about the assurance that drove them onward in search of a king. They might have asked themselves, "Does this really mean anything, does it make sense?" Still, they persevered until they discovered Jesus. Today's Gospel invites us to continue our quest to discover Jesus in our lives.

Just for Fun

After church, Johnny tells his parents he has to go and talk to the pastor right away. They agree and the pastor greets the family. "Father," Johnny says, "I heard you say today that our bodies came from the dust." "That's right, Johnny, I did." "And I heard you say that when we die, our bodies go back to dust." "Yes, I'm glad you were listening. Why do you ask?" "Well you better come over to our house right away and look under my bed 'cause there's someone either comin' or goin'!"

Keep smiling, Msgr. Knueven

Time to Sign-up

Christ Renews His Parish (CRHP) is a process designed to bring members of a parish together in Christ. All of our commitments, including our commitment to Christ, need continued renewal if we are to be faithful. CRHP is an effective spiritual renewal process, which calls together the members of the parish in order to experience personal conversion and Christian community in the environment of our own parish.

We are very excited about being able to offer this program at St. Mary's. A men's weekend is scheduled for February 16 & 17. And a women's weekend is scheduled for March 1 & 2 and will take place here on the parish grounds. Our number will be limited to 20 for each weekend and is open to men and women who are at least 19 years old. CRHP is for anyone seeking spiritual renewal, desiring to build up the Body of Christ or gain a deeper sense of purpose within the parish community. Praying for guidance is important. If you feel that Christ, through the Holy Spirit is calling you - COME! Call the office to reserve your spot.

Support the Right to Life

The Batesville Knights of Columbus will be having an all you can eat Chicken Dinner on January 5th at the hall in Batesville. We will be serving from 5pm until 8pm, and the cost will be $10.00 for adults and $6.00 for kids 8 and under. Carryouts will be available. The proceeds from the dinner will be given to St Louis and St Nicholas groups going to The Right to Life March in Washington D.C.

Please come out and support this worthy cause. Any questions please feel free to call the clubroom at 934-2729.

LAYPERSON OF THE YEAR AWARD!

This award will be presented at the Annual Appreciation Dinner in January. Nominations must be turned in to the parish office by January 6. Criteria: Person may not be paid for services, through service has given Christian Witness, and has received little or no notoriety for outstanding services rendered to the parish in a specific area or in a variety of service areas. The person may receive this award only once. No one may be nominated who is currently a member of the Parish Council and/or member of their immediate family.

In nominating a person, complete the following information and return it to the parish office by January 6. List various services and activities the person has rendered to the parish and attach a personal recommendation to this form.

SAINT MARY-OF-THE-WOODS COLLEGE ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR SAINT MOTHER THEODORE GUERIN SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION

Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College is still accepting applications for the Saint Mother Theodore Guerin Scholarship Competition. Exemplary female students enrolled in grade 12 in a public, private or parochial school or who are home schooled are encouraged to apply for the competition and the opportunity to compete for renewable SMWC scholarships valued at more than $140,000.

Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College (SMWC) was founded in 1840 by Mother Theodore Guerin, a woman well ahead of her time who impacted countless lives. An entrepreneurial leader who was dedicated to serving all people, regardless of race, religion or background, she was passionate about educating women and preparing them to become leaders.

To recognize students who embody the principles by which Mother Theodore Guerin lived and served, SMWC created the Saint Mother Theodore Guerin Scholarship Competition. The College will award 10 renewable scholarships, ranging in value from $13,000 to $20,000, to students nationwide who have the desire to use their unique experiences, aptitudes and abilities to make a difference in their local communities and beyond.

“Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College excels at graduating confident women leaders,” said SMWC President David G. Behrs, Ph.D. “We created this competition to recognize those students who, like Saint Mother Theodore Guerin, are using their knowledge, skills and determination to make an impact on the world around them.”

To be considered for a scholarship, students must submit a completed application form, a high school transcript, SAT or ACT scores, two reference sheets with letters of recommendation (one from a school official and one from a community member), and a written essay.

Any female student enrolled in grade 12 in a public, private or parochial school is eligible and female homeschooled students in grade 12 are also encouraged to apply. All application materials must be postmarked by January 1, 2008, to be considered for the scholarship competition.

Up to 25 finalists will be invited to the SMWC campus for a competition weekend in February 2008. Finalists will participate in a personal interview judged by a panel of College representatives.

Based on the submitted application materials and the final scholarship interviews, the College will award eight $13,000 renewable SMWC scholarships and two $20,000 renewable SMWC scholarships.

"We realize that a college education is a significant investment for students and their families, but we also believe that it is one of the best investments that they will make," Behrs said. "SMWC is committed to making quality, private education affordable, and we are pleased to offer the Saint Mother Theodore Guerin Scholarships as a way to further that commitment."

For more information, or to obtain a scholarship application, contact Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College at 812-535-5106, 1-800-926-SMWC or smwcadms@smwc.edu. Information is also available online at www.smwc.edu.

Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College, a Catholic college sponsored by the Sisters of Providence, is committed to the higher education of women in the tradition of the liberal arts and places special emphasis on preparing women for leadership roles in a diverse and global society. The College offers campus-based undergraduate degree programs for women and distance undergraduate and graduate programs for women and men. SMWC is located on a beautiful 67-acre campus near Terre Haute, Indiana. For more information, call 1-800-926-SMWC or visit www.smwc.edu.

Celebrating the Feast of Epiphany

(Read Matthew 2:1-12)

This feast has been celebrated around the Christian world for hundreds of years. This feast is usually celebrated twelve days after Christmas. Epiphany means “showing”, “revealing” or “manifesting”. Epiphany marks the visit of the Magi to Bethlehem. Magi comes from the Greek word magos, meaning great or illustrious. Magi were a higher class of people who may have been members of the king’s court, or doctors, scientist, astrologers, and/or mathematicians. They are also referred to as the “Three Kings” or “Wise Men”.

There is a tradition in the Orient that twelve Magi visited Jesus at his birth, but because of the scriptural reference to the three gifts (Matthew 2:11) three Magi are generally accepted. The legend says that the first of the Magi to visit Jesus was call Melchior. He was believed to be the ruler of Nubia and Arabia, a man of some sixty years who brought gold to Jesus, the king.

The second of the Magi was Kaspar, ruler of Tarsus in Turkey, said to be about twenty years and beardless. He offered frankincense, symbolizing the divinity of Jesus. The third, Balthasar, ruler of Ethiopia, was forty years old and of dark complexion. He brought myrrh, which predicted the death of Jesus. (In actuality, frankincense was used for embalming, while myrrh was used as a perfume and a medicine.)

When the Magi arrived in Bethlehem, God was showing or revealing himself not just to Abraham or his family or the whole nation of Israel, but to all of us in the world as well. Wherever you come from, whatever you look like and whatever language you speak, God is saying to us today that he is here for each of us and no one is left out. So, Epiphany celebrates that God, in the person of Jesus, has revealed or shown himself to us.

The story of the Magi also reminds us to be aware of signs that God gives us through ordinary people and events. The Magi followed a star that they knew was different from all the others in the sky. By answering God’s invitation, the Magi were among the first to see the Messiah.

Gold: A yellow, malleable, metallic element. Represents wealth-riches.

Frankincense: A sweet smelling gum resin, taken from the Frankincense tree of Southern Arabia. It is one of the world’s finest burning incense. It was a gift treasured by Kings and worthy of use in the Temple of ancient Israel.

Myrrh: A sweet smelling gum resin taken from the trees indigenous to the banks of the Red Sea. Treasured by Kings and used in the holy anointing oil used in the Tabernacle of ancient Israel.

Home Blessing

One of the traditions of Epiphany is performing a home blessing each year. Use the following as a guide to bless your home. Be sure all members of your family are present when you do this blessing. You can also invite a priest over to perform a blessing.

Leader: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
(All making the sign of the cross)

The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Leader: Lord Jesus Christ, the three wise men presented their gifts to you in praise and adoration: grant that we (living in this house) may use our talents and abilities to your greater glory. Amen.

Leader: [Beginning and ending at the front door of your home, walk from room to room sprinkling each space in your home and each member of your family with holy water. Be sure to include doorways, porches, and other sacred spaces in your home. If available, you can sprinkle the holy water using an evergreen branch. Pray the following as you begin the blessing.]

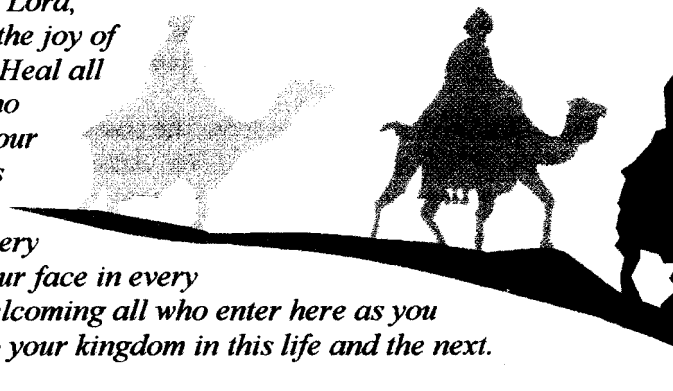

Bless this space, O Lord, and those who pass this way. Deliver us from every evil and show us your face.

Ending at the front door of your home, mark the doorway (top of the door or frame) with the current year plus the initials of the three wise men. Place a † cross between the initials.

Example: 20 + C + M + B + 08

Conclude with the following prayer:

*Bless our home, Lord, with peace and the joy of your presence. Heal all of our family who are in need of your touch. Teach us how to offer hospitality to every guest, seeing your face in every stranger and welcoming all who enter here as you welcome us into your kingdom in this life and the next.
Amen.*
