Peter and Paul Cathedral in Indianapolis at 1:00 p.m. Following the Mass the Central Indiana Life Chain will take place along Meridian St. Please contact Pat Koors, if you have any questions or need information.

CHRIST OUR HOPE: Compassion in Community

St. James warns in today’s second reading that those who hoard their wealth and live only for themselves will be condemned. But in the Gospel, Jesus assures us that all who give of themselves for his sake will be rewarded.

SCHOOL ZONE The students and teachers at St. Mary’s School are very happy to welcome three new staff members to our school: Mrs. Karen Dwiggin as custodian, Mrs. Jill Wilmer as the Preschool teacher, and Mr. Jeff Stonebraker as the P.E. teacher. We will meet Mrs. Dwiggin and Mrs. Wilmer in this week’s School Zone. Look for the introduction to Mr. Stonebraker in the next installment.

Mrs. Karen (Blankman) Dwiggin has three children—James, Amanda, and Craig. She also has three grandchildren—Halen (6), Alexis (4) and Matthew (11 months). Mrs. Dwiggin attended St. Mary’s School and graduated from Greensburg High School. She began her new job here three months ago, during the summer break. (She came in just in time to help with the summer cleaning of the whole school. The school looked great on the first day of the New Year!) Her favorite hobby is spending all her spare time with her grandchildren, and especially playing baseball with her granddaughters. She enjoys reading short stories, including the “Chicken Soup for the Soul” books. Mrs. Dwiggin likes the color pink and eating at the Olive Garden restaurants. Special memories from her elementary years here at St. Mary’s are that “we went to church everyday of the week, and the Christmas plays we put on for the parish.” She enjoys working at St. Mary’s because “Everyone is very nice, easy to work for, and very enjoyable.”

Mrs. Jill (Wessler) Wilmer is actually a returning teacher. She first came to St. Mary’s as a teacher in 1996, and taught first grade for six years. This is her first year as the Preschool teacher. She is married to Carl Wilmer and they have three daughters—Olivia (8), Emma (6), and Ava(3). Olivia is a third grader at our school and Emma is in first grade. Mrs. Wilmer attended St. Mary’s School and graduated from Greensburg High School in 1992. She graduated from Ball State University in 1996 with a B.S. in Elementary Education. Her hobbies include baking, making crafts with her daughters, and spending time and visiting with family and friends. Her favorite book is The Crippled Lamb by Max Lucado, and her favorite color is purple. She enjoys eating at the Texas Roadhouse. One of her special memories from her elementary school years was the Little Olympics. “Little Olympics was one of my favorite activities of the school year and jump roping was my favorite event because I won first place a lot!” She likes teaching at our school because: “I love the fact that I get to help lead children to grow closer to Jesus in their prayers and daily actions, as well as helping them to learn academics.”

There will be blessing of animals on Saturday, October 3 at 9:00 a.m.

Sunday, October 4 is Respect Life Sunday. Some of us will demonstrate for life along north Meridian Street from 2:30-3:30 in Indianapolis.

I will attend the installation of Fr. George Joseph at St. Maurice at 10:30, October 4.

Today’s Gospel warns us of the dangers of losing our faith. Jesus uses the example of plucking out our offending eye if it prevents us from entering the kingdom.

This reminds me of the story about two seniors who married in their 80s. On their wedding night, the man sat watching his new wife prepare for bed. She first removed her glass eye and put it in a box. She took her teeth out, and they went in the box as well. She next unscrewed her prosthetic leg; finally her wig came off and it all went into the box. The man cried, “I don’t know whether to get into bed or into the box!”

For us there is always excess baggage that we need to get rid of. We need to throw our sinful habits and vices into the box in order to prepare ourselves to enter heaven.

One Sunday in a Midwest City, a young child was “acting up” during the morning worship hour. The parents did their best to maintain some sense of order in the pew but were losing the battle. Finally, the father picked the little fellow up and walked sternly up the aisle on his way out. Just before reaching the safety of the foyer, the little one called loudly to the congregation, “Pray for me! Pray for me!”

Keep smiling,

Msgr. Knueven

St. Mary's Faith Formation

"Promoting Faith Formation in the Community"

Questions of the Week    September 27, 2009    True Discipleship

Reading I: Numbers 11:25-29 (Prophets of the Lord)

Reading II: James 5:1-6 (Miseries of the Rich)

Gospel: Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48 (Being For or Against)

Adults Do I feel uncomfortable or envious of the gifts of others? What have I learned from these feelings?

Children- How might I respond in a Christian manner to others who have gifts and talents other than I have?

*****

"Would you like to join us?" We would love to have you. A new session of Adult Faith Formation will begin the week of October 11. In this bulletin you will find a registration form with the times available. You may fill this out and bring it to the parish office, or you may call the office with the information. You need not have attended our first 6-week session to participate in this session.

Those who have participated thus far have given great reviews of the program and are ready for the next session to begin. We start by exploring the life of a holy person recognized in the church and then relate that person's experiences to our lives today. We also look at church teachings from the Catechism of the Catholic Church and discuss how those can relate to us at this time in our lives.

Can you Believe it!

We still have openings for our Wednesday night religious education program. We need a 3rd grade teacher, 6th grade aid, 8th grade aid.

Prayer Partners –We realize the need for prayer as we travel on this journey of faith in the RCIA program. Each member of the class: candidates, sponsors, and team members, will benefit from your prayers. You will also have an option to meet the person you will be praying for at one of our sessions. If you can give your time in this way, please sign up after one of the designated masses. You'll find the sign-up sheets at each door of church – or you can call the office to leave your name and phone number.

How Mass Can Make Your Week Better

By Lorene Hanley Duquin

It's September and everything is gearing up again — school, sports, lessons and lots of other activities. Perhaps you've included Sunday Mass on your list as another thing your family has to fit into an already overloaded schedule. But what if you started to think of it as the one time in the week when you can connect with God in a special way?

Mass also gives your family the opportunity to:

- Learn how God's word impacts your life.
- Forgive others during the Lord's Prayer.
- Reach out to others with the Peace of Christ.
- Come forward to receive the body, blood, soul and divinity of the Risen Christ.
- Experience the miracle of bread and wine changing into the Body and Blood of Christ.
- Bow your head for the blessing and go forth to make the world a better place.
- Seek forgiveness.
- Offer yourself to the Lord.

The best part is that you can do all of this in just one hour a week! So the next time you might wonder why you should go through the trouble of getting everyone ready for Mass, remember that strong families are based on a strong foundation.

Ever wonder why the archangels' names end in "el"? "El" is the Semitic word for "god"; therefore, the angels' names reflect their relationship to God. Michael means, "Who is like God?" Gabriel means, "Man of God." Raphael means, "God has healed." What does your name mean?
